

Dr. L. S. Harrow

July 11, 1960

J. C. Kolman

Improvement of Accuracy of Nicotine Analyses.

We have just prepared fresh nicotine standards with a resulting improvement in the accuracy of routine nicotine determinations. The new standards result in slightly lower values for all nicotine determinations (0.05 to 0.1%). We will instigate a program of preparation of fresh standards quarterly so that the accuracy of this determination will continue at its present level in the future.

Mr. Wickham's report with detailed information is attached for your information.

JCH:mar

cc: Mr. J. E. Wickham, Jr.

CE3-02743

C

2022240609