Hi Henry - just wanted to let you know i referred someone your way. Maggie Malito is someone that I know professionally -- she is on the board of a group called the National Council for Unity which is a group that teaches teenagers life-skills. They are looking for funding for an event this summer, which I told them we probably would not fund, but that it might be a good fit for our YSP efforts. She is going to send you a packet of information. I think their primary focus is on combating youth violence, but it may be a fit.
