Puff 'em . . .

Well, well, well. Inhale this.

Guess who else smokes in City Hall besides Ald. William "The Big Puffer" Beavers, who ignores a new smoking ban in the annex behind council chambers?

Answer: Mayor Daley's two secretaries.

Fact: The duo smoke in a private "smoking room" near their desks at City Hall.

Factoid: "It's called 'The Smoking Room,' and it's located outside the mayor's office on the fifth floor," said a top Daley source. "The mayor doesn't smoke cigarettes, but he loves chewing on cigars in his office."

Let us all now exhale.
