Up until approx. 6 mos. ago, I was smoking MAX menthol, which I had to "special order" for 20 yrs. - then, it got to be too much of a hassle, so I switched to Salem 100's. Before long, I'll find another brand, as it seems that 2 out of 3 cigs. are stale. This is extremely irritating & unnecessary! I've already thrown out more packages than I've actually smoked - so kindly check this problem out - & in the meantime, I'll check out other brands.

Respectfully,
L. D. W. H. A. L.
