

STATE OF ARKANSAS
BILL CLINTON
GOVERNOR

Greetings:

I congratulate the NAACP Fair Share Economic Development Program for sponsoring the Second Annual Black Corporate Executive Awards Ceremony. Also, I am pleased and honored to recognize the nominees for this award who exemplify outstanding leadership and service.

I am grateful to you for putting together such a fine program for Black History Month and for recognizing distinguished contributions to the business world by black leaders in all areas of related human endeavors, especially in the areas of finance and economics. These crucial areas open opportunities, build confidence, and create power.

I am honored to express my strong support for your continuing efforts.

Thanks to the hosts of this inspiring ceremony and to the deserving honorees for your important contribution to our mutual goals of enhanced equity, social justice, economic development, and equality of opportunity.

Sincerely,

Bill Clinton
